

The Right Time to Receive

Reverend Rosita Gennawey

Ask your questions. Do not hesitate to speak quietly to yourself or loudly to “the walls”. The walls have ears. All of our thoughts, words and actions are seen and heard by those around us. None of it is wasted.

Listen in silence and wait for the right time to receive. Patience will bring answers. Pay attention to your inspirations. Write them down so they don't get wasted. Good lessons, they will be, at the time that you need them most.

Our Spiritual Friends do not change their words once they teach us. Review their teachings to better understand them or repeat them to others with utmost respect.

These teachings I share with you:

- What you touch becomes part of you.
- Children are blooming flowers.
- Patience requires strength.
- Organize yourself.
- Time is only physical, is short. Use it properly.
- You are known by your works.
- Your failure is to accuse others.
- Fear and doubts will never clean your clothing.
- A child falls many times before he can walk.
- What you learn is yours.
- While brains rest, minds work.
- Ears are for hearing.
- Peace has no sounds.
- Spiritual ability is the help to work in different directions.
- The essence of Truth is Love.
- Knowledge belongs to everyone.
- There is light in all things although not seen.
- Don't get out of college without your diploma.
- Dreams that you don't remember are not wasted.
- Prepare yourself before giving.
- Keep your mind clean.
- Man is cruel to others by ignorance of himself.
- We are all teachable.
- How could one brother mistrust another, since brothers in the flesh is not enough.
- We are part of each other.
- Allow others to be on their way.
- Be compassionate with yourself.

- The strength of a man is using his own power.
- The more you cleaneth, the less you weigh.
- The popularity of a man depends upon his efforts.
- The calmer you are, the stronger you shall be.
- Laughter, the highest of vibrations.
- Anger is a waste.
- Relaxation is the commander.
- Thoughts are utensils valuable to our own progression.
- In the space in which we are, is always a beautiful day.
- May the virtues of innocence not be stained by the illness of jealousy.
- The School of knowledge accepts all of those of Good Will.
- Silence restores energy.
- Mysteries of Life are many.
- Enlightened Peace is the accomplishment of all efforts.
- The ruler is limited, but the Light of God is Universal.
- Keep still and know.
- It is better to say “No” than to say “Yes” and not be happy.
- The road is long, but it becomes shorter as you walk ahead.
- Questions are not an obligation, answers are.
